Women's Basketball to Host Alumni Reunion on Feb. 9

Former Georgia Southern and Armstrong alumni of Women's Basketball are invited to attend GATA Club

Posted: 1/31/2019 4:00:00 PM

STATESBORO, Ga. - Georgia Southern University Athletics would like to invite all former women's basketball student-athletes, coaches, trainers, equipment managers and their families to the 2019 Women's Basketball Alumni Reunion!

The reunion will be held Saturday, February 9, 2019, in Statesboro at Hanner Fieldhouse.

Alumni are invited to kick the day off with a shootaround with the team at 9:00 a.m. at Hanner. Then join former teammates and friends to cheer on the Georgia Southern women's basketball team as they compete against the University of Louisiana Monroe at 2:00 p.m. During halftime, all alumni in attendance will receive on-court recognition.

All former Georgia Southern and Armstrong women's basketball student-athletes, coaches, trainers, and managers are eligible to receive one complimentary ticket to the women's basketball game with the option to purchase additional tickets for their guest(s) for only $5.

Immediately following the game, all alumni and their guest(s) are invited to a post-game social with current players and coaches.

Those interested in attending should RSVP at GSEagles.com/GATA by Wednesday, February 6, 2019!

The weekend is sponsored in part by the GATA Club. The mission of GATA Club is to provide a platform to "Get Athletes Together Again" as well as re-engage alumni with the Georgia Southern and Armstrong Athletics community through mentoring and networking opportunities and special events. The GATA Club also strives to provide ways for former Athletics Alumni to continue their legacy by supporting current student-athletes academically, athletically and professionally. GATA Club events are open to former student-athletes, coaches, trainers and managers and their families.
